“Our products are often bulky and heavy, and consequently can be very difficult to handle. Despite this, at the delivery point, Pall-Ex goes the extra mile to ensure that our customers are totally happy.”

Tim Goodliff, Aggregate Industries

“We know that by using Pall-Ex, there is more flexibility in terms of flowing deliveries from our regional distribution centres. We also have confidence that when we need to distribute goods quickly, Pall-Ex can complete the work.”

Nick Hook, Head of Global Transportation, The Body Shop

“Since our partnership began in 2006, Pall-Ex has developed a quality operation that gives the fastidious level of service required to meet our customers’ expectations.”

Kevin Deegan, Operations Manager (BHM CL), Kuehne + Nagel Limited

M. J. MAILLIS

“Time critical deliveries are of paramount importance to our operation, and Pall-Ex fulfils these obligations to our customers. The cost savings are significant when compared to our previous method of distribution.”

Kevin Swain, Operations Director, M J Maillis UK Limited

BARTHOLOMEWS

“As a contract warehousing company, we have 20 clients with very different delivery profiles, ranging from consignments of several hundred individual pallets at short notice, to single pallets going to awkward locations. Churchill Freight Services, through their membership of Pall-Ex, have shown refreshing willingness and ability to deal with all these requirements. They have been integral to our success and we have no hesitation in recommending them as a capable and cost effective pallet delivery solution.”

To Pall-Ex Depot 76, from Richard Bartholomew, Director, Bartholomews Specialist Distribution

“The quicker you can identify problems and resolve them, the more time your staff has to look after customers. I have to say you have clearly done that for us. Your manifest/feedback process is very fast, flexible and efficient and your company always seems to know our requirements.”

To Pall-Ex Depot 91, from Komal Patel, SSQ UK Limited

“Since 2001, Pall-Ex has consistently provided us with a high level of service covering the whole of the UK for our fragile products.”

To Pall-Ex Depot 77, from Kodak Business Operations Director, UK and Ireland
